PETTICOAT BARGAINS

Maybe it's because we look so carefully to materials, making and fashioning that we sell so many petticoats.

At any rate, our sales in this department are steadily increasing—and the reason for it is obvious—we can and do give the best quality at any fixed price.

Petticoats of high grade taffeta silk, in six different styles—that you will not likely match under $6.50 $5.00

Mercerized Satteen and Near Silk Black Petticoats; any number of styles and makes are represented—none are worth less than $1.25; some as much as $1.50. 98c

EXTRA LARGE Black Petticoats; not slighted in the size, material or finish. If you need a skirt that is really large, you will find it here $1.50

"YOUNG MRS. WINTHROP."

Hampton Talent to Give Play in Portsmouth—Tug for the Actors.

"Young Mrs. Winthrop," the society drama which created such a favorable impression in Hampton and Williamsburg, will be presented in Portsmouth tonight by Hampton talent.

The play will be given at the navy yard for the benefit of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home. The authorities at the navy yard will send a tug to Old Point at 1 o'clock this afternoon and the company as well as those who desire to see the play in Portsmouth will be conveyed there free of charge, provided a ticket of admission to the play is purchased at 50 cents.

The tug will return with the Hamptonians after the play and arrangements have been made to have a bus meet the party at Old Point upon the return of the tug. This will cost an additional 25 cents.

Odd Fellows Send $25.

Gable Lodge of Odd Fellows at its meeting Thursday evening decided to send $25 to the sufferers of San Francisco.

R. E. Lee Camp to Meet.

Commander Robert K. Curtis has issued a call for a special meeting of Robert E. Lee Camp Confederate Veterans on Monday evening. Arrangements for the memorial day exercises will be made and other matters of importance will be taken up.

Green Vegetables Today.

Beasley & Bush will have a fine assortment of green vegetables today.
